Hereafter referred to as 'consignor',

1. Consignor agrees that Diamond Guitars may offer the following guitar at the indicated asking price:

- Name, model, serial # and asking price for sale on various marketplaces and diamondguitars.nl, in newsletters and any other sales channels it sees fit. The Consigner hereby states that this instrument has been acquired legally.

2. Consignor agrees that Diamond Guitars retains a consignment fee of ..% of the selling price.
3. In addition to the consignment fee, consignor agrees to pay an initial set-up and multimedia fee of € 125 per guitar. This fee covers cleaning, restringing, minor setup, photography, web page creation and web announcements for your guitar. The fee is to be paid prior to the listing and is non-refundable.
4. The actual selling price as indicated under 1.1 may vary due to various circumstances. The Consignor agrees to a minimum revenue ofEuro.
5. Consignor is responsible for all repairs that are necessary prior to listing. All repairs must be agreed to by consignor and paid for upon completion.
6. Consignor agrees not to advertise the guitars anywhere else while the instrument is at Diamond Guitars. Consignor may recall the guitar at any time with two weeks' notice.
7. All instruments will be kept in a climate-controlled environment.
8. Consignor agrees that a buyer will receive a 3-day trial period during which the instrument can be returned for any reason. The trail period is limited to the EU-zone.
9. Diamond Guitars maintains business insurance for all instruments in its care. In the unlikely event that a guitar is damaged while in the care of Diamond Guitars or while shipping to or from trials, Diamond Guitars will be responsible only for the cost of having the instrument professionally repaired.
10. Diamond Guitars agrees to pay the consignor within fourteen business days after buyer acceptance.
